TWO-YEAR-OLDS AT HAVANA

YOUNGSTERS WHICH WILL ENLIVEN RACING AT THE CUBAN METROPOLIS.

Big List of Cubans Holding Membership in the Cuba-American Jockey Club-Livingston Horses Arrive in Good Condition.

Havana, Cuba, January 3.—With the coming of the new year, Secretary Nathanson had just forty-five more horses to draw from, that number of yearlings being quartered on the gounds at Oriental Park. There are some real good lookers among the band and it is really surprising how fast the youngsters develop here. Mrs. Godfrey Preece and G. W. J. Bissell had more yearlings in their stables than any other owners here. Mrs. Preece had eight and Bissell six. In the following list of youngsters the ones with the star in front of their names are those for which names have been accepted by Registrar Rowe of the Jockey Club:

LONG-PRICED WINNERS OF 1915

Two horses won races at better than 200 to 1 in 1915, no horse winning at so long odds in 1914. Both prices were paid in pari-mutuels. In four more cases better than 100 to 1 straight was paid, and Miss Sherwood paid 141 to 1 for place at the Pimlico spring meeting. Long prices are not frequent on the New York tracks and the only case cropping up under the New York system was Rochester's 40 to 1 at Saratoga. The list of horses which paid 40 to 1 or more straight or place, as the case might be, is as follows:

DISQUALIFICATIONS OF 1915

Thirty horses were disqualified in the racing of 1915, of which eighteen had finished first, while the others finished second or third. The chief sufferer was Celandria, which finished first in the Rosedale Stakes at Jamaica June 22, and in the Walden Stakes at Pimlico November 6, only to be disqualified and placed last in both cases, for swerving and fouling competing horses. The dates, horses set back, tracks, jockeys and causes for the action taken are shown in the following tabulation:

DEAD HEATS OF 1915

Six dead heats were made in the racing of 1915 without being run off. Four of the six occurred at Juarez, the other two being run at Latonia and San Francisco. Dead heats are infrequent. Six were made in 1914, four in 1913, five in 1912, six in 1911 and only two in 1910. The dates of the races and the horses

PANAMA REACHING OUT FOR RACING.

From Panama, under date of December 26, Daily Racing Form is informed that on December 1, the Panama Jockey Club was incorporated with William T. McCormack as president. L. A. Schroeder & Co., who will handle the finances of the organization, are the informants. It is stated that the government has granted the Panama Jockey Club a twenty-five-year franchise, with bookmaking and pool selling privileges, and that the track will be located in the city limits on the exposition grounds. It is further stated that $100,000 will be spent for track construction, grandstand, stables and other structures necessary for race-track purposes. Material, horses and supplies are to be admitted free of duty.

MR. BELMONT'S PURCHASES IN ENGLAND.

Not all the stock bought for American owners at the Newmarket sales will leave England. Thus, Cattish (late Melton Regina, winner of the Hardwicke Stakes at Stockton and other races), by Melton out of Spiteful, by Jeddah, and tracing to Busybody, in foal to Lemberg; Gallows Hill, by Galashiels out of Indulgence (dam of three winners), by Trenton out of Lemity (grandam of Florist), by Bend Or out of Clemence, in foal to Duke Michael: Moneta, by Spearmint out of Jubilee, by Diamond

Jubilee out of Jeunesse Doree, by Isinglass, in foal to Lemberg, and Royal Coinage, by Minting out of Royal Marriage, by Pietermaritzburg, tracing to Carine, and in foal to Marajax—these four mares were bought for Mr. Belmont, and will visit his horse, Tracery, next season at the Southcourt Stud. The numerous purchases of Mr. Selby—twenty-seven in all—were safely shipped by the International Horse Agency and Exchange on the Manhattan. This is a bit of a record, having regard to the multiplicity of permits, certificates, forms and declarations which have to be obtained for each particular animal before shipment is possible. Among Mr. Selby's shipment is the fine yearling colt by Colin out of Acalot, by Pioneer, bought by Mr. Welsh at the sales for 500 guineas, but afterward transferred by him to Mr. Selby at a substantial profit. Mr. Price McKinney, the owner of Colin, will be glad to see this colt, I am sure.—
"The Special Commissioner" in London Sportsman.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

G. H., Chicago. Irish Gentleman's prices were correctly published.
B. M., Chicago. Nash was "out" for place and the parlay was void as to him.
W. A. K., Cincinnati, O. The tabulation is interesting, but not available for newspaper use. It would probably have resulted better if applied to the high-class horses.
F. W. H., Keytesville, Mo. In the special race between Pan Zareta and Joe Blair at Juarez, February 10, 1915, the time given for the first quarter was 21%, and for the half mile 44%.

CHEERFUL AT NEW ORLEANS

WEATHER FINE, TRACK IMPROVING AND PAT-RONAGE ALL THAT COULD BE EXPECTED.

Eagle Takes the Feature Race with Ease, While Lindenthal Runs Disappointingly-Preparing for Ladies' Day Crowd.

New Orleans, La., January 3.—June weather here today accounted for a generous patronage for the racing at the Fair Grounds. The attendance, however, fell far short of that of the opening day. The boxes and clubhouse section showed a liberal sprinkling of society folks and interest in the sport was as keen as on Saturday. The Kentuckians were again to the fore and carried away the lion's share of the purses.

The track, while drying rapidly, was still slow and favored those stayers with mud-running procivities. The feature race, a mile allowance affair, was taken in easy style by Eagle from the Emil Herz stable. Herbert Temple, the extreme outsider, landed in second place, with Lindenthal third. The latter showed a disappointing performance and was never dangerous at any part of the race.

The juvenile purse went to Mico Girl, running in D. W. Scott's interest. She won right like a good one and handled herself as if having a thorough knowledge of racing. Giford Cochran's Ginger Quill took second money over Conowingo. Most of the starters ran green and probably will improve.

Ginger Quill took second money over Conowingo. Most of the starters ran green and probably will improve.

Elaborate preparations are under way by the management to entertain an immense throng tomorrow, which will be the first ladies' day of the meeting. The card of six races offered are all at a mile or over, a feature that will be observed throughout the meeting on all ladies' days.

There was less confusion in the palm garden today, the decreased attendance enabling speculators to move about with more comfort and dispatch. Those inclined to place wagers found plenty of opportunity. The officials continue to receive laudatory and complimentary telegrams from all sections of the country. Arrivals continue steadily and the town is fairly filled with racing followers and notables in sport.

Wankeeg, a two-year-old filly by Ogden—Lady Vincent, owned by G. A. Cocbran, was sold today at private terms by trainer W. R. Midgeley to Capt. Prease of Ottawa.

J. C. Yeager will leave Havana next Wednesday and arrive here Friday.

CALIFORNIAN RECRUIT TO RACING.

CALIFORNIAN RECRUIT TO RACING.

Edward Cebrian, a wealthy young San Franciscan, has embarked in breeding and racing on a large scale. He has purchased of Al Joseph the former James R. Keene stallion Von Tromp and some twenty-five well-bred mares. Al Farrell, who formerly trained Bubbling Water. Cloudlight and the other famous campaigners for Moleta & Joseph, has been engaged to train Cebrian's string, and expects to bring out some select performers next spring.

At present the horses are located at the San Jose track, but it is said that Cebrian is planning to purchase a stock farm and engage in the breeding industry on a large scale. The horses he has purchased are:

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

The attendance at Saturday's opening of the Fair Grounds meeting at New Orleans was estimated at 8,000.

Barney Schreiber's, at one time, good race horse Sager, by Bannockburn—Miss Marion, is now the property of Richard Allman and is in the stud at Castle Lake Ranch, Coulee City, Wash.

Jockey T. McTaggart has been confined to his bed at New Orleans several days with illness. He was taken sick after going on the road reducing and caught a severe cold. He was able to be about his room yesterday.

A New Orleans correspondent writes to The Globe that the clockers speak well of the Stanley Fay yearlings in William Walker's stable. That is, they were yearlings when he wrote, but two-year-olds now.—Toronto Globe.

J. MacManus has sent his five-year-old chestnut horse Belloc by Oddfellow—Balzane, to John S. Barbee's Glen-Helen Stud for a rest. He will be allowed to serve a few mares the coming season, but will be put back in training again later in the year.

A feature of the opening of the New Orleans meeting on Saturday was the successful return of Ted Koerner to the saddle. He piloted the winner of the opening race of the meeting, Chilton King, and incidentally showed his old-time skill in the saddle.

W. J. Dowling has Arcite in the stud on his farm near Owosso, Mich. The former George J. Long star was bred there hast year to Menlo Maid, by Nasturtium—Independence Day; Camarada, ov Cesarion—Chum; Pony Girl, by Baldur—Repay; Bob's Pet, by Cesarion—Mary Kernaghan; Irene Regent, by Makaland—Kittie Regent, and Chicaso, by Gotham—Hawbloom.

Old Rey Hindoo, with a band of his sons and daughters, is at New Orleans, leading a San Francisco paper to say: "The return of Rey Hindoo to Take San Francisco paper to say: "The return of Rey Hindoo to Take San Francisco paper to say: "The return of Rey Hindoo to Take San Francisco paper to say: "The return of Rey Hindoo to Take San Francisco paper to say: "The ret
